

The Museum of the Village of Rockville Centre, 28 Hempstead Ave., is celebrating its 40th year anniversary.

A Victorian Tea will be held at the Church of Ascension,
71 N. Village Avenue on October 28th at 3:30 P.M.

Mary Bossart, former Mayor of Rockville Centre will present a program about the history, various types of teas and preparations. Collectible and vintage tea items will be on display.

Take a step back in time and join us for an authentic Victorian Tea Party with your choice of tea and a selection of fingertip sandwiches and pastries.

- Tickets are $30.00 each.
- Raffles will be available
- Seating is limited
