Mayor's Message

Dear Neighbors:

2022 continued to prove that the Village of Rockville Centre is one of the premier communities in which to live, work, and raise a family on Long Island. Our award-winning schools, recreation programs for youth and seniors, safety, downtown area, and overall quality of life are second to none. I am privileged to be your Mayor and committed to keeping our Village affordable while delivering the great services our residents have come to expect.

Once again, the Village of Rockville Centre received the highest possible bond rating from one of the top credit rating services. Standard & Poor's (S&P) Global Ratings has affirmed Rockville Centre's AAA rating for public improvements bonds. We have aggressively pursued grants and gifts to make improvements in order to hold the line on taxes for our residents. Throughout my tenure, over $51 million dollars in federal, state, and local grants, as well as gifts have been secured to make improvements within the Village.

As always, we continue to make upgrades throughout the Village so that future generations may benefit. In 2022, we improved our infrastructure, refurbishing roadways and planting trees, replacing water mains, upgrading our electric infrastructure, and continuously updating our parks and ballfields. The Rockville Centre Police Department has moved into its new state-of-the-art headquarters that will continue to keep our Village one of the safest communities in the U.S. well into the future.

The 2022 Annual Report provides basic information about Rockville Centre, its government and administration, and many outstanding municipal services available to you. You will also find contact information for the Board of Trustees and the department heads that are responsible for delivering those municipal services to you.

The Board of Trustees and I are always available to you. We are committed to communicating with you and to responding to you because we believe that a receptive and accountable Village government is an important reason why Rockville Centre continues to be such a desirable community in which to live. I encourage you to log onto our website at www.rvcny.gov and follow the Village on our social media pages including Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram to learn about news and upcoming events for 2023.

It is a privilege to be the Mayor of Rockville Centre. I am proud of the work we have done and look forward to continuing to improve on this great foundation to make it an even better place for generations to come.

Sincerely,

The members of the Village Board — the Mayor and four Trustees — are elected at-large by residents to four-year terms. Elections are held every two years in odd numbered years. The Board sets Village policy, passes local laws, adopts the annual budget and makes appointments to various local boards, commissions and advisory committees.

The Board meets in public approximately 12 times a year at night in Village Hall, after being briefed by the Village Administrator and the department managers at two additional open meeting called a Briefing Session and Mid-Month Meeting. The Board meetings include a comment period where members of the public may address the Mayor and the Trustees. The Board also holds public hearings on the annual budget and on any proposed legislation. Meeting as the Exterior Design Review Board, the Trustees also hold public hearings to review the architectural plans for certain commercial and residential projects. In addition, every July an Organizational Meeting is held at Village Hall. The Trustees are assigned as liaisons to the various departments and to the principal civic, cultural, and educational organizations in the Village. Board members take seriously the responsibilities of their Trustee positions: regularly attending public events and meetings to hear from their neighbors. Residents may write to or call them at Village Hall or leave e-mail messages on the Village's website www.rvcny.gov.

The Board passes local laws, adopts the annual budget, makes appointments and sets Village policy.

Rockville Centre Remembers

Neighbors and friends gathered at a candlelight ceremony in memory of the 49 community members whose lives were lost as a result of the attacks on September 11, 2001, as well as the countless others who have died in the aftermath.

"Over two decades later, we continue to gather together, in solidarity and heartbreak, to pay our respects and to ensure that we remember each and every life that we lost so that our present and future generations shall never forget. May we continue to give strength and comfort to our friends and neighbors impacted by the horrific and still unfathomable events that occurred 21 years ago," Mayor Francis X. Murray said at the ceremony.

Nearly 3,000 flags were placed at the Village Green honoring each victim of the attacks. All of the names of Rockville Centre residents killed as a result of the attacks are inscribed on the memorial and were read aloud.

Mayor Murray and the Village of Rockville Centre Board of Trustees announced that applications are now available for families to add the names of loved ones to the Village 9/11 memorial who succumbed in their battle against 9/11 related cancers and illnesses. The names of our fallen residents will be inscribed on the Village of Rockville Centre's 9/11 memorial along with the 49 residents lost that day.

"The events of 9/11 continue to wreak havoc on our first responders and survivors," commented Mayor Francis X. Murray. "We know that a growing number of firefighters, police officers, tradesmen, downtown workers, students and so many others have gotten sick or died from illnesses related to the toxins in the dust from the burning buildings. Our Village pledges to never forget our residents we lost that day and the days following the attack. We want to ensure that our families have a place to go and grieve with their fellow neighbors."

Fire Department

Chief James Avondet
1st Assistant Chief Scott Mohr
2nd Assistant Chief Tony Rugolo
678-9320

During 2022, the Rockville Centre Volunteer Fire Department answered the challenges faced by all our Village residents and businesses. Under the command of Chief James Avondet, First Assistant Chief Scott Mohr, and Second Assistant Chief Tony Rugolo the Rockville Centre Fire Department responded to over 3,400 emergency calls for assistance from the residents and businesses of Rockville Centre during 2022.

Volunteers answered over 1,000 alarms of reported fire, which included 196 automatic alarms, 300 commercial automatic alarms, 21 multiple dwelling automatic alarms, 74 carbon monoxide alarms, five with aided, internal pull boxes, 59 odor of burning alarms, five rubbish fires, five car fires, two truck fires, oil spills, 40 natural gas inside, 18 natural gas outside, and other hazardous conditions. The Department also responded to over 2,000 ambulance calls, 140 automobile accidents, two vehicles into buildings, providing medical care and assistance, eight accidents with extracting victims from mangled vehicles, five vehicles on fire, and two overturned vehicles.

Providing safe and effective aid requires countless hours of specialized training and certification from County and State regulating agencies, as well as additional training for incident scenarios. Practicing techniques and team response to various situations, provides optimum response in emergencies where every second is critical. Members train for all types of emergencies. Wire and transformer fires, oil burners, elevator rescues, gas and propane leaks, confined space rescues—staying up to date with new technologies such as electric cars and solar panels.

The Fire Department continued our regular fire inspections and safety presentations to the community.

The greatest volume of alarms the Department responds to are medical in nature. Medically trained Department personnel provide emergency pre-hospital care to victims of stroke, heart attack, seizure, difficulty breathing, allergic reaction, overdose, fractures and sprains, lacerations, burns, concussions, medical alerts, people in pain and more. Last year, department personnel were responsible for reviving five residents who were in full cardiac arrest. In 2022, the Department responded to 2,358 medical alarms. In addition to our alarms, the Department responded to 39 mutual aid alarms where the Department assisted neighboring communities with their emergencies.

Chief Avondet and both Assistant Chiefs continue efforts toward the recruitment and retention of members in order to provide the community with the excellence and professionalism our all-volunteer Department provides.

Seven fire companies, Eureka Hook, Ladder and Bucket Company, Live Oak Engine Company 1, Defender Hose Company 1, Alert Engine and Hose Company 2, Reliance Hose Company 3, Woodland Engine Company 4, and Floodlight Rescue Company 1, located in five firehouses across Rockville Centre, make up the Rockville Centre Fire Department. Additionally, members serve on the Fire Police squad, protecting members by directing traffic at fire scenes and traffic accidents. There are presently 323 members of the Department and—looking to the future—there are 20 Junior Firefighters.

Each fire company dedicates at least one night per week to in-house training. The training includes reviewing proper engine, truck and rescue operations, forcible entry, mask confidence, repelling, hazardous materials, medical refreshers, pump operations, ladder operations, rescue operations, vehicle extrication, scene size-up and safety and review of preplans. Additionally, each company spends nights at the Nassau County Fire Service Academy (NCFSA) engaged in numerous advanced operations. The Department's performance is then critiqued by NCFSA staff highlighting performance excellence and discussing deficiencies. Members also attend numerous additional courses offered by the NCFSA. Every Sunday morning, each company maintains their equipment, their vehicles and firehouses. Members also volunteer to serve on numerous Department committees including the Planning Committee (oversees capital budgeting), Board of Instruction Committee (responsible for all Department training), Finance Committee (responsible for preparing and overseeing the Department's operating budget), Alarm Committee (responsible for repair and maintenance of alarm pagers and providing alarm dispatching) and the Safety Committee (responsible for providing guidance on requirements for safe operations). Fire prevention, as mentioned above, is staffed entirely by volunteer firefighters. For additional information, please call (516) 678-9254 or visit www.rvcfd.org.

Police Department

Commissioner James Vafeades
766-1500

The Rockville Centre Police Department proudly serves the Village residents with fifty-eight sworn police members that are supported by nine full-time and twenty-seven part-time civilians. Records management personnel, dispatchers, neighborhood aides, and school crossing guards make up our nonsworn civilian staff.

Our department prides itself on being one of the most highly trained police departments in the country. Our officers trained more than three thousand hours over the course of the year. Emergency vehicle operation, drug and alcohol recognition, active shooter response, gang awareness, narcotics enforcement, emergency medical care to include CPR and Narcan are just some examples of the training that they undergo. The department qualifies every officer annually on marksmanship on their handguns and patrol rifles and has an extensive tactical firearms training program.

Training is an important aspect to meeting accreditation standards. Accreditation is a progressive and contemporary way of helping police agencies evaluate and improve their overall performance. The Accreditation Program is run by the New York State Division of Criminal Justice and is comprised of a set of standards developed to further enhance the capabilities of an agency. The Rockville Centre Police Department met or exceeded the requirements of one hundred ten different standards and is one of only three agencies that are accredited in Nassau County. We are looking forward to our re-accreditation in January 2023.

Major crime continues to decline, and the Village of Rockville Centre remains one of the safest places to live in New York State. The police department's traffic enforcement efforts will continue to increase with the utilization of license plate readers throughout the Village. These license plate readers help to identify vehicles with suspended or revoked registrations and wanted or missing persons; additionally, they assist in locating vehicles involved in criminal activity.

In 2022, the RVCPD continued its excellent working relationship with the Rockville Centre School District. The partnership that exists between the local police and the school district exhibits a cooperation that is uncommon and makes the Village of Rockville Centre and its residents the envy of other Villages and towns on Long Island. The department takes an active role with the Rockville Centre Coalition for Youth and the Youth Council, which assists in the education, awareness, and informational programs that the department offers. Our police officers also conduct random walkthroughs in each school, every day. It is this type of cooperative, working partnership that is enjoyed between our schools and police. The RVCPD looks forward to furthering our relationship with your schools over the next year.

In 2022, our department moved into our new headquarters located at 142 Maple Avenue. We had a ribbon cutting and open house where residents were able to see firsthand the technology and safety measures employed at the new facility. We're hoping that the rich tradition and history of Rockville Centre and our department will live on in this building for many decades.

The challenges presented to our department by the pandemic stretched our resources to the fullest, but the officers of the department will continue to respond in a safe, professional manner while always keeping the welfare of our residents as their first priority. We have put safety protocols in place when necessary and these protocols have helped keep our officers safe and, in doing so, help to keep our community safe.

It is our goal to keep the safety of our residents and officers in place, and to do whatever we can to make Rockville Centre a better place to live, work, and play in 2023.

Village Services

Building Department Superintendent Patrick O'Brien 678-9250

The Rockville Centre Department of Buildings reviews and issues permits for Residential and Commercial construction projects, certificates of occupancy and/or letters of completion.

The Building Department inspects licensed work, conducts life safety inspections, investigates complaints of violations of Village and New York State Codes, and determines whether building permit applications may be granted or if they are required to be directed to the Planning Board for site plan review, special use permits, or subdivision review or to the Zoning Board for zoning code variance requests as well as Exterior Design Review for those property owners improving and enhancing their respective homes and businesses. Major improvements planned to advance, are reviewed by Zoning, Planning or Exterior Design Review Board approvals.

Our Certified NYS Code Enforcement Officers are fully trained and maintain compliance with the most recent NYS code change adoptions and continue to participate in the mandated annual in-service training requirements; as approved by the NYS Department of State, Division of Building Standards and Codes.

During the calendar year of 2022, the Building

Department approved more than 3,000 Commercial and Residential building permits, plumbing permits, electric permits, fuel gas permits, and property maintenance inspections. This is to provide a safe environment in the build community; in a continued effort to become ambassadors as "First Preventers" in protecting life and property, as recognized by The New York State Department of Building Standards and Codes, The New York State Building Officials Conference, and The International Code Council.

The Building Department maintains a contract with Seery Systems Group Inc. to store and digitized 85,000 permit files. This system allows for the preservation of aging files and gives the Village the ability to recall files electronically.

Through a photo ID system, the Building Department officially licensed 297 Electricians and 135 Plumbers. They received photo ID cards upon issuance and/or renewal of a license.

The Building Department has reviewed and permitted numerous Commercial and Residential construction projects with an estimated construction cost of more than $384 million dollars.

The Building Department currently has one Superintendent, one Deputy Superintendent, two full-time Building Inspectors, two part-time Building Inspector, as well as two full-time and one part-time Clerk.

Fireworks Spectacular Takes to the Sky

The Annual Fireworks Celebration and Concert returned on Saturday, July 9th. Thousands of families and friends gathered to enjoy an evening under the stars with the iconic Grucci fireworks and performance by South Shore Symphony. "It was great to see our Village come together for the return of our beloved fireworks show," commented Mayor Francis X. Murray.

Electric Department

Acting Superintendent, Eileen Foglietta (516) 678-9294

The Village of Rockville Centre is one of three communities on Long Island to operate an Electric Utility that provides residents with advantages in cost and reliability. Outages are infrequent, normally brief in duration and the average cost of a kilowatt hour for residential customers is about (40%) forty percent less than PSEG (LIPA).

The Village gets approximately two thirds of our energy from a Long-Term Hydro Power Purchase Agreement with the New York Power Authority. The Village also purchases power from the New York Independent System Operator's (NY-ISO) wholesale power market in addition to running local generation to meet summer peaks. Local generation also provides power during storms, other emergencies or when the PSEG Transmission Lines come out of service for maintenance.

Annual engine maintenance is performed to ensure summer peak or emergency readiness. Tune-ups on Engines 9 & 10 were completed during the summer. A new controls system for Engine 14 has been designed and will be installed in the 2nd quarter of 2023.

The Village is in the process of upgrading the underground distribution system to improve system-wide reliance and resiliency. Several underground manhole utility vaults were repaired over the year. Outdated underground equipment is being replaced with modern technology to minimize emergency outages and reduce repair time when an outage occurs.

A new two-port Level 2 electric charging station was installed in the parking lot adjacent to 110 Maple Avenue in March 2022 for public use.

As conservation efforts continue to be on the utility forefront, 2022 proved to be an active year for the Rockville Centre Peak Savers Program, processing qualifying rebates to customers that make energy efficiency upgrades to their homes and businesses. Enrollments for the Demand Response Program from Jan. 1 – Dec. 31 increase by 27 eligible for a total of 125 smart thermostats that currently contribute to peak load demand reduction during summer months. Residents and business owners may participate in the DSM program if they have an active central air conditioning unit(s) controlled by Nest, Honeywell, or Emerson wi-fi smart thermostats.

Quarter 4 increased energy savings efforts with the newly implemented Rockville Centre Appliance Rebates Program for residential and commercial customers totaling 17 individual measure enrollments for qualifying ENERGY STAR® rated equipment. Non-residential rebate programs include the Custom Program which evaluates and processes incentives for non-prescriptive measures and the Commercial Lighting program which benefits small businesses who complete energy efficient lighting upgrades. All our rebate programs improve our green footprint.

The Rockville Centre Water Department provides water from 10 wells located throughout the village. The water is stored in four elevated tanks with a combined capacity of 4 million gallons and is distributed through more than 70 miles of water main. The Water Department continually monitors and samples the water by dedicated and NYS licensed treatment operators to ensure residents are drinking and using water that is clean, safe, and meets or exceeds all health standards by Federal, State, and County regulations. Independent, state-certified laboratories are used to test and ensure the quality of our drinking water. The Water Department operates two state-of-the-art iron removal plants that remove the naturally occurring iron from the water before it enters the distribution system.

Rockville Centre Celebrates 34TH Year as Tree City USA

The Village of Rockville Centre has been recognized as a "Tree City USA" for the past 34 years from the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation Division of Lands and Forests. The Tree City USA program is a national program that provides the framework for community forestry management for cities and towns across America.

To celebrate this achievement and Arbor Day, Trustee Katie Conlon and members of our Department of Public Works joined with Boy Scout Troop 40 at the Village Green to plant a tree and shrubs. In addition, Mayor Francis X. Murray helped plant a Red Maple tree on Morris Avenue. "Trees and green spaces are an important part of Rockville Centre," commented Mayor Francis X. Murray. "We will continue to play our part and continue to plant because we know that means less pollution, walkable neighborhoods, and community pride in our Village."

Swift Action by First Responders and Village Employees Prevent Catastrophic Impacts to our Village

A massive fire erupted at the intersection of North Centre Avenue and Sunrise Highway at 1:11 a.m. on February 16, 2022 after a tanker carrying approximately 9,200 gallons of gasoline overturned and crashed into the vacant La-Z-Boy and then skidded into the parking lot of Bargain Liquors. The crash sparked the vacant furniture store to be fully engulfed in flames before partially collapsing, fire to spew from numerous manholes, and the tanker and liquor store to go up in flames.

"We are fortunate that no serious injuries occurred, thanks to the heroic actions of our first responders, our dedicated Village employees and the countless departments who provided mutual aid," commented Mayor Francis X. Murray. "These men and women left the safety of their beds in the middle of the night to respond to a dangerous fire that could have ended very differently if it wasn't for their heroic actions. We are beyond grateful for their dedication and service to our great Village."

Mayor Murray and Village Administrator Nancy Howard were on the scene shortly after the accident occurred to coordinate assistance from the County, State and Federal agencies, as well as over twenty neighboring Fire Departments. In addition, our Department of Public Works, Electric Department, Building Department, and Water Department were on site to assist during and after the blaze and to mitigate any further damage to the Village.

"As a first responder and the Mayor, I was beyond proud and humbled to see hundreds of people from different agencies and departments work together to not only put out the fires, but to protect our Village from further damage," continued Murray.
